THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9; 2 Cor 13:11-13; Jn 3:16-18

“Having come down in a cloud, the Lord stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, ‘Lord.’ Thus the Lord passed before him and cried out, ‘The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity. Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said ‘If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company.’”

Children sing with great gusto ‘Our God is an awesome God...’ Any words we use to describe God fall short of reality, whether it be the Trinity or each Person. Maybe we should grab the descriptive words of Exodus to describe God, as we know the three Divine Persons through their activity of creator, redeemer and animator.

God is merciful, the wonderful virtue emphasized by Pope Francis. Our God is gracious or considerate of us in our need, one of the fruits of the Spirit as described by St. Paul. Our God is one not to take offense, He doesn’t get mad, but perhaps at times He is disappointed with us and He is filled with kindness, one of the fruits of the Spirit described by Saint Paul. God is always true to His word and fulfilling His promises. We can apply all these characteristics to the God we praise on this Trinity Sunday.

A WORD FROM PAX CHRISI METRO NEW YORK

Trinity Sunday does not get the recognition of so many other feast days, like Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost; yet, it is truly a wonderful holy day, worthy of great attention and celebration. It is on Trinity Sunday that we honor the totality and oneness of God as Divine Parent, Incarnate Son, and Holy Spirit. And the readings of this Sunday present the joy and promise of this extraordinary feast from start to finish. In the first reading we are told that God is a "merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." In the second reading we read "the God of love and peace will be with you." And in the Gospel we learn that "God so loved the world that God gave the only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him." Of course, it is our responsibility to believe and follow the Son, not always an easy task, but the opportunity is there. How could we not rejoice?!
