A MESSAGE FROM REV. MSGR. GREGORY MUSTACIUOLO

Dear friends:

Often the best way to hear good news is straight from the source. And we have really good news for you!

Recently, the Archdiocese of New York launched a quarterly magazine, Archways, to keep you informed about the programs and services we have to offer you and all Catholics in our 10 counties.

Our second edition has just been published, and the focus is on our families. In it, you'll find a roundup of services the archdiocese provides, including:

- Support for parents, from birth and baptism and beyond
- Marriage preparation and guidance
- Great family volunteer opportunities
- Expert answers about our Catholic faith

We publish Archways four times per year; online at www.archny.org/archways and - if you are a contributor to the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal - you will receive it twice per year in print.

You can count on every issue not only to look at what is going on around our archdiocese but also to encourage participation and involvement for the betterment of our parishes, schools and charitable endeavors.

I hope that you will look forward to each new edition and that you'll come away more informed about what we can accomplish together in service of Jesus and His church.

Faithfully in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. Gregory Mustaciulo
Vicar General and Chancellor
Archdiocese of New York

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

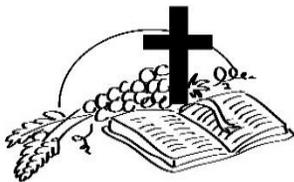

God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, "As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do."

Second Reading: II Corinthians 5:6-10

Paul acknowledges "that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies." We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please him in this life.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God's community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 17, 2018

"Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil."

In recent years we have heard calls for transparency and accountability. Whether in politics, the corporate world or the church, demands are being made on the activities of others. Judgments follow. The television is filled with many court room cases being exposed and decisions made – guilty, non-guilty, fines and recompense. That is entertainment.

St. Paul reminds us that we all will experience the same accountability for reward or punishment. Sometimes we try to avoid finding ourselves as the subject of such scrutiny, yet it is only as a result of our goodness, our prayer life, our service to others, that the reward will come.

For many, it is quite convenient to pass over the idea of judgment. Maybe we should spend a moment to judge ourselves, ask forgiveness and reap the reward. Remember Matthew 25, 'Come blessed of my Father inherit the kingdom prepared for you....'
